

ATI PN COMPREHENSIVE PREDICTOR WITH NGN /PN ATI COMPREHENSIVE PREDICTOR WITH NGN ACTUAL EXAM ALL 180 EXAM QUESTIONS AND CORRECT ANSWERS UNTIL NOW 2024-2025

A nurse on the medical- surgical unit is assisting with the care of a client who was admitted from the emergency department (ED). Complete the following sentence by using the list of options. - the client is at risk for developing confusion due to sodium level

A nurse is preparing to administer a medication to a client. The client states, " I'm sick of all these medications, and I'm not taking any more today!" Which of the following actions should the nurse take? - Inform the client of the possible consequences of the medication refusal

A nurse is caring for a client who is 1 day postoperative and is unable to ambulate. Which of the following actions should the nurse take to promote the client's venous return? - Maintain a sequential compression device

A nurse is receiving change-of-shift report for four clients. Which of the following clients should the nurse see first? - A client whose urinary output was 100mL for the past 12 hrs

A nurse is preparing to insert an indwelling urinary catheter for a female client. Which of the following actions should the nurse take? - Open the outer package flap of the catheterization kit away from their body

A home health nurse is caring for an older adult client who just returned home following a total knee arthroplasty. Which of the following actions should the nurse take first? - Determine the client's mobility status

A nurse in a long term care facility is auscultating the lung sounds of a client who reports shortness of breath and increased fatigue. The nurse should report which of the following to the provider after hearing this sound? - Fine crackles

A nurse is assisting in the care of a client who is postoperative following an appendectomy. Which of the following 4 client findings should the nurse report to the charge nurse? - Oxygen saturation, pain level, heart rate and nausea

A nurse is preparing to administer medications to a client who is NPO and is receiving enteral feedings through an NG tube. Which of the following prescriptions should the nurse clarify with the provider? - Metoprolol ER 50 mg per NG tube BID

A nurse in a providers office is reinforcing teaching with a client who has a new prescription for ferrous sulfate elixir. Which of the following statements by the client should indicate to the nurse an understanding of the teaching? - I will rinse my mouth after taking this medication

A nurse is contributing to the plan of care for a client who had a vaginal delivery 4 hr ago and has a fourth degree perineal laceration. Which of the following interventions should the nurse recommend - Instruct the client to use a sitz bath at least twice a day

A nurse is collecting data from a client who is in the diagnostic center and scheduled to undergo a colonoscopy. Based on the information provided in the client's chart, which of the following pieces of data places this client at risk for colorectal cancer? - BMI

A nurse is preparing to administer digoxin to a client who has heart failure. Which of the following findings should indicate to the nurse that the medication has been effective? - Cardiac workload decreases

A nurse is assisting with the care of a client. Select 2 findings the nurse should report to the provider - Heart rate and dressing

A nurse is caring for a client who is in buck's traction. Which of the following actions should the nurse take? - Allow the weights to hang freely

A nurse has administered medications to a group of clients. For which of the following client situations should the nurse complete an incident report? - The nurse administered insulin lispro to a client who has diabetes mellitus and is NPO

A nurse is caring for a client in an outpatient setting. Complete the following sentences by using the list of options - Heart failure and BNP level

A nurse assisting with a childbirth class is discussing no pharmacological strategies used during labor. Which of the following statements by a client indicates an understanding of cutaneous stimulation? - I should use counter pressure for back pain during labor

A nurse is reinforcing teaching with a client who has left sided weakness and is learning how to ambulate with a cane. The nurse should identify that the client understands the teaching when the client placed the cane in which of the followings positions when advancing forward - B right side, top corner

A nurse is reinforcing teaching with a client who has a prescription for nitroglycerin sublingual tablets. Which of the following instructions should the nurse include in the teaching - Take up to three tablets during a single angina episode

a nurse is contributing to the plan of care for an older adult client who has difficulty sleeping. Which of the following interventions should the nurse include? - Establish a regular exercise routine 2 hr or more before bedtime

A nurse is caring for a client who request information about advance directives. Which of the following responses should the nurse make? - Advance directive are written instructions regarding end-of-life care

A charge nurse in a long-term care facility notices an assistive personnel's (AP) repeated failure to provide oral care for clients. Which of the following actions should the charge nurse take? - Discuss this behavior with the AP while reinforcing expectations

A nurse is reviewing the laboratory results for a client who is at 29 weeks of gestation. For which of the following results should the nurse notify the provider? - Platelet count  $95,000\text{mm}^3$

A nurse is observing an assistive personnel (AP) caring for a client. For which of the following actions by the AP should the nurse intervene? - The AP reports client information to the oncoming AP in the hallway

A nurse is performing vision testing for a client following a head injury. Which of the following findings should the nurse identify as a problem with pupil accommodations? - Lack of change in pupil size when the client looks from a far to a near object

A nurse is collecting data from a male client who is scheduled for a left inguinal herniorrhaphy. Which of the following findings is the priority for the nurse to report to the provider? - Decreased bowel sounds

A nurse is assisting with a presentation at a community center about personal disaster preparedness. Which of the following strategies should the nurse recommend for preparing a home disaster supply kit? - Have a supply of prescribed medications

A nurse is assisting with an in-service about hepatitis A for a group of staff nurses. The nurse should include that hepatitis A is transmitted through which of the following methods? - Consumption of contaminated food

A nurse is reinforcing teaching with a client who has a celiac diverticulitis. Which of the following statements by the client indicates an understanding of the instructions? - I will receive the nutrients I need through my IV fluids

A nurse is collecting data from a client who has myasthenia gravis (MG). Which of the following images should the nurse identify as an indication that the client is experiencing ptosis? - Drooping of the right eye in the pic

A nurse in an urgent care setting is assisting with the care of a client. For each findings click to specify if the findings requires a follow up or does not require a follow up -
Requires follow up: BMI, HR, HbA1c and BP

A nurse is preparing to administer a rectal suppository to a school-aged child. Which of the following actions should the nurse plan to take? - Use one finger to insert the suppository past the anal sphincter

A nurse is reinforcing teaching with a client regarding prescribed medications. The nurse should instruct the client to use which of the following medications for the treatment of an acute asthma attack? - Albuterol

A nurse is caring for a client who has a prescription for famotidine 160mg PO every 6 hrs. Available is famotidine oral suspension 40mg/5mL. How many mL should the nurse administer per dose - 20mL

A nurse is assisting with monitoring a client who is at 40 weeks of gestation and is in active labor. The nurse recognizes late decelerations on the fetal monitor tracing. Which of the following actions should the nurse take? - Place the client in a lateral position

A nurse is assisting in the care of a client who is postoperative following administration of general anesthesia. Complete the diagram by dragging from the choices below to specify what condition the client is most likely experiencing, 2 actions the nurse should take to address that condition, and 2 parameters the nurse should monitor to assess the clients progress. - Malignant hyperthermia, administer oxygen, dantrolene, hyper apnea and muscle tension

A nurse is assisting with the admission of a client who has major depressive disorder. Which of the following communication techniques should the nurse use to establish a trusting relationship with the client? - Offering general leads

A nurse is contributing to an in-service for newly-licensed nurses about child maltreatment. The nurse should include that which of the following characteristics increases a child's risk of physical maltreatment? - The child was born at 34 weeks of gestation

A nurse is assisting with the care of a client who is postoperative following coronary artery bypass surgery (CABG). Complete the following sentence by using the list of options. - Dysrhythmias as evidence by electrolyte imbalance

A nurse is contributing to the plan of care for a client following a transurethral resection of the prostate (TURP). Which of the following interventions should the nurse include? - Irrigate the bladder using sterile technique

A nurse is reinforcing teaching with a client who has fluid volume deficit about selecting foods that have a high water content. The nurse should include that which of the