

ENGL148 Advanced English Composition Bachelor of Nursing Year 1 Comprehensive Advanced 200 Multiple Choice Practice Questions with Answers (Graded A+) 2025-2026 100 % Guaranteed pass.

Section 1: Rhetorical Analysis & Situation (Questions 1-50)

1. Kairos in rhetoric refers to:

- a) The ethical appeal of the writer.
- b) The logical structure of an argument.
- c) The opportune time and place for persuasion. ✓
- d) The emotional impact on the audience.

2. A nursing student writing a persuasive letter to the hospital board advocating for safer nurse-to-patient ratios is primarily engaging which element of the rhetorical situation?

- a) Exigence ✓
- b) Genre
- c) Media
- d) Stance

3. In a research article arguing for a new palliative care protocol, the "Methods" section primarily serves which rhetorical purpose?

- a) Pathos - to evoke sympathy for the patients.
- b) Ethos - to establish the researchers' credibility and process. ✓
- c) Logos - to present the core argument.
- d) Kairos - to explain why the study was timed perfectly.

4. Which of the following is the BEST example of a debatable thesis statement for an argumentative essay on nursing?

- a) "Nursing is a demanding profession that requires a lot of education."
- b) "Mandatory overtime for nurses, while often used to address short-staffing, ultimately decreases patient safety and increases nurse burnout, and should be replaced with alternative staffing models." ✓
- c) "This essay will discuss the problems with mandatory overtime in nursing."
- d) "Are nurses forced to work too much overtime?"

5. A "rhetorical choice" can be defined as:

- a) A trick used to deceive the audience.
- b) A deliberate selection of a device, strategy, or mode to achieve a purpose. ✓
- c) Only the use of figurative language like metaphors and similes.
- d) The final editing process of a document.

6. When analyzing the audience for a poster presentation at a national nursing conference, the most important consideration is that the audience is likely:

- a) The general public with no medical knowledge.
- b) Hospital administrators focused only on budget.
- c) A specialized group of peers and experts with clinical knowledge. ✓
- d) Politicians crafting healthcare legislation.

7. The primary purpose of a SOAP note (Subjective, Objective, Assessment, Plan) in a patient's chart is:

- a) To entertain the medical team with a narrative.
- b) To persuade the insurance company to approve payment.
- c) To inform and create a shared, accurate record for collaborative patient care. ✓
- d) To express the nurse's personal feelings about the patient's condition.

8. A nurse writing a reflective journal about a difficult patient case is primarily working in which mode of composition?

- a) Narration ✓
- b) Description
- c) Argumentation
- d) Exposition

9. Which statement best demonstrates a writer's ethos?

- a) "My heart breaks for every patient suffering from this disease."
- b) "According to a 2023 meta-analysis in The Lancet with a sample size of 10,000 patients..."
- c) "Therefore, the statistical correlation is undeniable and logically sound."
- d) "As a registered nurse with 15 years of experience in pediatric oncology, I have observed..." ✓

10. Pathos is effectively used in which of the following sentences from a public health campaign?

- a) "Vaccines introduce antigens to produce an immune response."
- b) "Imagine your child protected from whooping cough's violent, gasping cough." ✓
- c) "The CDC recommends all children be vaccinated according to the scheduled