

Question:

Time Remaining:
Pause Remaining:

A nurse is providing teaching to a client who speaks a different language than the nurse and an interpreter is present. Which of the following findings should the nurse document that shows the client understands the teaching?

- Client smiles and nods at the nurse.
- Client has no questions for interpreter.
- Client makes eye contact with the nurse frequently.
- Client points to objects on printed resources when nurse is speaking.

Question:

Time Remaining:
Pause Remaining:

A hospice nurse is talking with the partner of a client who is near death. The partner states, "How will I go on without them? I already feel so alone." Which of the following actions should the nurse take?

- Express sympathy to the client's partner.
- Ask the client's partner if they need anything.
- Hug the client's partner.
- Reassure the client's partner that it will get better.

Question:

Time Remaining:
Pause Remaining:

PAUSE

A school nurse is teaching bicycle safety to a group of school-age children. Which of the following statements by a child indicates an understanding of the teaching?

- "I should walk my bicycle through crosswalks."
- "I should keep my bicycle far away from the curb."
- "I should ride my bicycle side-by-side when biking with a friend."
- "I should ride my bicycle in the opposite direction of the traffic flow."

Question:

Time Remaining:
Pause Remaining:

PAUSE

A nurse is teaching a group of school-age children about healthy snack options. Which of the following snacks should the nurse include?

- Cheesecake
- Air-popped popcorn
- Milkshake made with whole milk
- Baked potato chips

Question:

Time Remaining:
Pause Remaining:

PAUSE

A community health nurse is working with a group of clients. The nurse practices the ethical principle of distributive justice by performing which of the following tasks?

- Keeping a promise to visit with a client who is housebound after the delivery of care
- Ensuring that a client who is homeless receives preventive medical care
- Being honest with the parents of a child about the need to report suspected abuse
- Accepting the decision of an older adult client to live alone in her home

Question:

Time Remaining:
Pause Remaining:

PAUSE

A nurse is teaching a prenatal class about infection prevention at a community center. Which of the following statements by a client indicates an understanding of the teaching?

- "I should take antibiotics when I have a virus."
- "I can visit my nephew who has chickenpox 5 days after the sores have crusted."
- "I can clean my cat's litter box during my pregnancy."
- "I should wash my hands for 10 seconds with hot water after working in the garden."

Question:

Time Remaining:
Pause Remaining:

PAUSE

A community health nurse is working with a family that is struggling to adapt following the loss of a family member. Which of the following actions should the nurse take first?

- Refer the family to a grief support group.
- Determine the roles of individual family members.
- Encourage the family to assign specific tasks to individual family members.
- Assist the family to establish a daily routine.

Question:

Time Remaining:
Pause Remaining:

PAUSE

A community health nurse is working with a group of clients. The nurse practices the ethical principle of distributive justice by performing which of the following tasks?

- Keeping a promise to visit with a client who is housebound after the delivery of care
- Ensuring that a client who is homeless receives preventive medical care
- Being honest with the parents of a child about the need to report suspected abuse
- Accepting the decision of an older adult client to live alone in her home