

ATI LPN Exit Exam with All Questions and Answers [Lincoln Technical Institute]

A nurse is reinforcing teaching with a client about advance directives and a healthcare proxy which of the following client statements and the kids and understanding of the teaching

➤ I do not need to name a relative as my designee in my health care proxy

A nurse is reinforcing teaching about advance directives with a client who has end-stage heart failure. Which of the following statements by the client indicates an understanding of the teaching?

"I know I can change my advance directives if I need to in the future."

A nurse is caring for a client who speaks a different language than the nurse. Which of the following actions should the nurse take?

Supplement spoken language with pictures. Or review the facility policy about the use of an interpreter

A nurse is caring for a client who speaks a different language than the nurse. The clients partner tells the nurse that the client would like to go home against medical advice (AMA). Which of the actions should the nurse take?

- a. Discharge the client and notify the health care provider
 - b. Request the services of an interpreter to determine the clients wishes
 - c. Have the client's partner sign an AMA form
 - d. Ask the partner to reiterate the consequences of leaving AMA to the client
- b. Request the services of an interpreter to determine the clients wishes

We have an expert-written solution to this problem!

A nurse at long term care facility is reviewing the plan of care who has a prescription for mitten restraints. Which of the following tasks should the nurse assign to assistive personnel?

- a. Evaluate the need client
- b. Assist the client with range of motion exercises of the hands
- c. Determine the circulation status
- d. Instruct the client's family about purpose mitten restraint

b. Assist the client with range of motion exercises of the hands

8. A nurse in an acute mental health facility is caring for an adolescent who is exhibiting destructive behavior. Which of the following actions should the nurse take after applying physical restraints to the client?

- a. Monitor the client's range of motion every 60 min.
- b. Plan to remove the restraints as soon as the clients is calm
- c. Offer the clients nutritious snack every 4 hr.
- d. Ensure that the procedure has signed a prescription for restrain within 48 hr.

b. Plan to remove the restraints as soon as the clients is calm

A nurse is reviewing information about advance directives with a newly admitted client.

Which of the following statements by the client indicates an understanding of the information?

c. Advance directives include a living will

A nurse on a medical surgical unit is assisting with the admission of a client who has advanced lung cancer. Which of the following actions regarding advance directives should the nurse take?

b. Document the client's decision about end-of-life care in the medical record

A nurse in a mental health facility receives a change of shift report on 4 clients. Which of the following clients should the nurse plan to assess first?

- 1. A client placed in restraints for aggressive behavior
- 2. A new limited client presents history of 4.5kg weight loss in the past two months
- 3. Client is receiving a PRN dose of haloperidol two hours ago for increased anxiety
- 4. Client will receive his first ECT treatment today

1. A client placed in restraints for aggressive behavior
A nurse on a mental health unit is caring for a client who is in restraints. Which of the following actions should the nurse take?

- Check the client's status every hour.
- Document the client's behavior leading to the initiation of restraints.
- Obtain written consent by the client for the placement of the restraints.
- Release the client's restraints every 4 hr.

Check the client's status every hour.

A nurse is caring of a client who is confused and is trying to pull out their IV catheter. After attempting other measures to prevent the client from self-harm, the nurse places wrist restraints on the client. Which of the following actions should the nurse take?

- a. Remove the restraints from the client's wrists every 2 hr.
- b. Fasten the restrains ties to the bed's side rail
- c. Contact the provide within 48 hr. to obtain a prescription for the restrain
- d. Check that one finger will fit between the client's wrist and the restraints

a. Remove the restraints from the client's wrists every 2 hr. The nurse delegates a task to an AP and the AP refuses to complete the assigned task. Which of the following actions should the nurse take? Report the AP to the risk manager

A nurse is preparing to delegate client care to an assistive personnel AP. Which of the following information should the nurse verify prior to delegation?

- a. The AP's years of experience
- b. The client's length of facility stay
- c. The client's age
- d. The AP's job description
- d. The AP's job description

A nurse in a long-term care facility is delegating care for a group of clients for the upcoming shift which of the following tasks the nurse delegate to assistive personnel (select all that apply)

- Measure vital signs for a client who requires contact precaution,
- record urine output for a client who has a super pubic catheter, trees for a client who is receiving radiation therapy to radiology

A nurse on a hospice unit is caring for a client who has cancer and is in the active phase of dying. Which of the following findings requires intervention by the nurse?

- a. Benzodiazepines are administered every 4hr
 - b. Supplemental oxygen in use
 - c. A family member remains at the client's bedside 24 hr. each day
 - d. An assistive personnel is encouraging intake of oral fluids
- a. Benzodiazepines are administered every 4hr
- A nurse is caring for a client who is in stage kidney disease the client has decided to stop dialysis treatment which of the following actions should the nurse take?

Support the client's decision and stop the treatment

A nurse is administering pancreatic enzymes to a child who has cystic fibrosis. Which of the following outcomes should the nurse expect as a therapeutic effect of the treatment?

- Reduced fat in the stools
- Improved respiratory function
- Decreased sodium excretion
- Improved absorption of vitamins B and C
- Reduced fat in the stools

a nurse is assisting with care of a client who is receiving chemotherapy and radiation for advanced breast cancer. The client states "I am thinking about stopping the treatment. Which of the following responses should the nurse make?

- a. Tell me more about what are you thinking
- b. I would feel the same way if I were you
- c. You'll be cancer free after you complete your treatments
- d. Why do you think that would be a good choice

a. Tell me more about what are you thinking

A nurse determines that clients who receive zolpidem postoperatively have an increased fall rate compared to other postoperative clients. Which of the following members of the health care team should the nurse report these findings?

- The risk manager
- The pharmacist
- The case manager
- The surgeon

The risk manager

A nurse is caring for a client who has rheumatoid arthritis and is having difficulty with ADLs, such as cooking and eating. The nurse should ensure that the client has a referral to which of the following members of the interprofessional team?

- Dentist