

MEDICAL PEDIATRICS/ HEALTH HISTORY PRACTICE QUESTIONS WELL ANSWER

What are the two types of screening? -

✓✓ANSWER✓✓-Phone and in-person screening

The process of obtaining information from a patient to determine their medical condition - ✓✓ANSWER✓✓-Screening

What is triage? - ✓✓ANSWER✓✓-(To sort)
In French

A method of emergency screening in person or phone to categorize conditions of the sick

What are the ABC's of triage? -

✓✓ANSWER✓✓-airway, breathing, circulation

What information should MA's need to answer phone calls? - ✓✓ANSWER✓✓-

Medical terminology, Anatomy, Disease and disorder, Medications, Communication Skills, Emergencies, Self-control, Decision making and Compassion

In Person screening need to be done in _____ due to HIPPA. -

✓✓ANSWER✓✓-Private

What is subjective data? - ✓✓ANSWER✓✓-

Data that only the subject or "patient" can feel and will tell you. Usually in a statement.

What is objective data? - ✓✓ANSWER✓✓-

What you observe and can measure

What are examples of subjective data? -

✓✓ANSWER✓✓-Headache, chest pain, feels like fever, chills, pain level

What are examples of objective data? -

✓✓ANSWER✓✓-Vital signs, culture and sensitivity, weight, measurements, temperature, Laboratory diagnostics

What does C/C mean? - ✓✓ANSWER✓✓- chief complaint

What does C/O mean? - ✓✓ANSWER✓✓-

Complaint of

What does H/O mean? - ✓✓ANSWER✓✓- History of

What does PMH mean? - ✓✓ANSWER✓✓-
Past medical history

What does HPI mean? - ✓✓ANSWER✓✓-
History of present illness

What are the 8 factors influencing screening? - ✓✓ANSWER✓✓-1) Having a professional relationship with the patient

2) Privacy

3) Beware of your bias

4) Nonthreatening environment

5) Beware of nonverbal messages

6) Be sure the patient understands

7) Allow patients to talk the most

8) Use open ended questions